COSRT IS SEEKING APPLICATIONS TO JOIN THE ETHICS AND CONDUCT COMMITTEE

We are looking for applications from dynamic, committed professionals from both in and outside COSRT's Membership to join a new Ethics and Conduct Committee.

This group will work with the Chief Executive and other staff to advise and report to the board, supporting key pillars of our work. This is your chance to make a difference to the development of the therapy sector in the UK. Your chance to support our ongoing development as we cement our position as a sector-leading organisation.

WHO WE ARE & WHAT WE DO

COSRT is the Professional Body for Psychosexual and Relationship Therapies. We set standards for therapists and help professionals meet those standards. We hold two Registers of therapists who meet or exceed these standards – covering Psychosexual and Relationship Therapies. We accredit and deliver training. We carry out and support research. And we support the public with information.

WHAT IS THE COMMITTEE?

The Ethics and Conduct Committee will be an oversight and advisory group linked to the Board. It will help ensure professional standards are underpinned by the best quality policies and practices. And it will play a role in supporting the application of these policies when complaints are conducted.

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

We are looking for people with the skills described in the Person Specifications (below). The Committee will include COSRT Members and non-Members – so we invite applications from both.

To ensure our Committees are as diverse as possible we are particularly keen to receive applications from Black, Asian and minority ethnic people, people with disabilities, or who experience physical or mental health concerns; people who identify as being LGBTQIA+.

PERSON SPECIFICATION – ETHICS AND CONDUCT COMMITTEE

We seek applicants with some or all of the following key skills and experiences to join our Ethics and Conduct Committee:

- Understanding of how conduct procedures and policies operate.
- Knowledge of good practice in conduct, complaints, and ethics.
- Experience of developing or administering ethical codes and policies.
- Experience of developing, administering, or engaging in conduct procedures.
- An understanding of the sector, key organisations, and the wider regulatory framework.

REQUIREMENTS FOR COSRT MEMBER APPLICANTS

Applicants from COSRT Membership should be able to show that they:

- Are on one or both of COSRT's Registers
- Have no adverse professional conduct judgements recorded.
- Are free from any conflicts of interest.

WHAT'S INVOLVED

- The Committees will meet remotely between three and four times a year for standard meetings.
- Additional meetings may be called subject to needs around live complaints.
- The Committee will appoint a Chair from within its membership.

- Committee members may be asked to take on specific roles, and to attend additional meetings if necessary.
- All Committee members are expected to participate in discussions, provide opinions and make decisions as required.
- Committee members may be contacted by staff for support in their specific area of expertise.
- Committee members will serve for a term of up to two years, and no longer than four years consecutively.

RESPONSIBILITY OF A COMMITTEE MEMBER

- Keep up to date with all relevant areas relating to your area of expertise and how these impact COSRT and the wider professions it oversees.
- Be a source of advice and guidance on matters relating to your expertise and ensure that agreed delegations are adhered to across the organisation.
- To actively take part in meetings and lead or participate in other committees to help develop the profession.
- To be an advocate for COSRT and Psychosexual and Relationship Therapies.

NEXT STEPS

Please send your CV including two professional referees and a covering letter (two page maximum) demonstrating your suitability for the role to john.dodd@cosrt.org.uk.

All completed applications should be received by 2nd April 2024. For an informal discussion about the Committee please contact john.dodd@cosrt.org.uk.
